Philadelphian Wins SugarHouse Casino Golden Ticket Contest!

Michele Whittington Wins All Expense Paid Trip To Five-Star Fallsview Casino

Philadelphia, PA (May 9, 2006) – After a frantic and fun-filled morning in which 6,000 custom-made SugarHouse candy bars were distributed to the public, Philadelphian Michele Whittington was the big winner of SugarHouse Gaming’s Willy Wonka-style Golden Ticket contest. An ecstatic Ms. Whittington wins an all-expense paid trip for two to the five-star Niagara Fallsview Casino Resort in Niagara Falls, Canada.

By discovering the specially-designed Golden Ticket, Ms. Whittington wins a 3-day/2-night trip to Canada’s biggest tourist destination. “I didn’t think this would happen when I woke up this morning!” she said, shrieking with delight. “I’m excited to finally be able to take a vacation.”

The Grand Prize – A Weekend at Niagara Falls

The Niagara Fallsview Casino is developed by the same team bringing the SugarHouse Casino to Philadelphia. The Niagara Fallsview Casino Resort is a 2.5 million square foot complex that includes more than 3,000 slot machines and 150 gaming tables, a 368-room five-star hotel, fine-dining restaurants, 50,000 square feet of meeting/conference space, a health spa, a retail facility, a 1,500-seat theatre and much more! Located on a stunningly landscaped property, the Niagara Fallsview Casino Resort overlooks one of the most famous views in the world – Niagara Falls.
